Featured beneficiary story: Brave Adea

Sweet brave Adea captured our hearts the moment we laid eyes on her. Since the very first moment she came into this life, at her mother's seventh month of pregnancy, she struggled with her health. After being treated with Survanta medication and oxygen system, stayed in the incubator for some weeks and received treatment with SiPap machine, Adea is a brave survivor. Her mother is a proud parent having her back at home. We wish Adea a long and healthy life. Read more...

Let's Support Kosovo's Mothers and Children benefit comes in New York

We are traveling to New York City and invite you to meet us halfway. We would like to welcome you on a 2-hour reception at the Russian Tea Room to see firsthand the struggles mothers and children in the developing world face each day and the solutions we provide for them. All the ticket sales and donations will benefit Action for Mothers and Children. Read more...
